Terms and conditions

1. All membership applications are subject to approval by CEO Clubs International in Romania.
2. Applicants are expected to provide correct details when they are applying for membership and failure to do so may invalidate their membership and any subsequent transaction. Their responsibility to provide accurate information is a continuing obligation and they must notify CEO Clubs International in the event that any information provided has changed.
3. A Member in CEO Clubs Int'l in Romania is automatically a Member in any CEO Clubs chapter globally.
4. The membership in CEO Clubs is personal. The applicant is responsible for ensuring that no one else is using the membership.
5. In the event that the applicant leaves his/her current position, he/she will maintain the membership in CEO Clubs Int'l until it's expiration, provided that he/she continues to be a decision maker in another company.
6. Membership fees can be found on this application. Applicants will be notified in writing for any changes.
7. Membership fees are due on acceptance of the membership application.
8. The membership fee is non-refundable.
9. CEO Clubs International reserves the absolute right to cancel or suspend a membership (at its sole discretion) for any reason that is against the principles of the Club or against its rules of operation.
